

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Personal: MARTIN B. FOIL, JR.

Address: 556 Hermitage Drive
Concord, NC 28025

Age: 76

Wife: Carolyn Van Every Foil

Children: Quincy Foil, a Graduate of Meredith College, with three children and founder of Cabarrus Arts Experience; Marty, a Graduate of Davidson College and Project Manager, Hinds Feet Farm. Mary Foil, Tampa, FL; and Philip, who received a traumatic brain injury seventeen years ago.

Education: Graduate of Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Virginia 1951

Graduate of Davidson College, 1955, B. S. Degree in Business Administration

Graduate of North Carolina State University, 1959 with high honors, B. S. Degree in Textile Engineering; Recipient of the American Association for Textile Technology senior student award; First recipient of the Harry Reimer Award given to the winning presentation sponsored by the Textile Veterans Association for all textile schools in the United States. Elected to Phi Kappa Phi, January 1959.

Since graduation has often been a guest lecturer in the School of Textiles.

Military: Served in the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps at Fort Benning, Georgia, active duty from 1955-1957

Honors: Selected as Phi Psi "Man of the Year 1988" for the U. S. Textiles Industry.

Recipient of the 1983 "Nine Who Care Award" in the business/industry category for the nine county area of Piedmont North Carolina.

Recipient of the 1999 Philip L. Lance Award for Public Awareness of Brain Injury. The Brain Injury Association 's most prestigious Award.

Recipient of the 1999 Governor 's Business Award given by the Governor 's Business Council on the Arts and Humanities.

John W. Kuykendall Award for community service: by Alumni: Associate of Davidson College - April 2000.

Career

Summary: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Tuscarora Yarns, Inc., one of the larger spinners of novelty yarns on the cotton system in the United States, with plants in Mt. Pleasant, Oakboro, and China Grove, North Carolina and one of only a handful of yarn designers in the United States.

Civic

Activities: Board of Directors, Alexis de Tocqueville Society, United Way of Central Carolinas, Inc.

First Presbyterian Church, Concord; active member, served as Sunday School Teacher, Board of Deacons, Elder and Clerk of the Session

Served on the Board of Directors Cabarrus County Boys' and Girls' Club

Served as past President and member of the Board of Directors of the Old Courthouse Theatre, Concord

Past Chairman of the Board of Directors of Cabarrus Cooperative Christian Ministry

Served as 1984 General Chairman for the United Way of Cabarrus County, Past President of the United Way, past board member of United Way of Central Carolinas, Inc.

Served on the Board of Directors, Presbyterian Healthcare
Past President and member of the Board of Hospice of Cabarrus County

Board of Visitors, Davidson College

Board of Visitors, University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Board of Directors, Cabarrus Arts Experience

Board of Visitors, Stowe Botanical Gardens

Board of Directors, Presbyterian Hospital Foundation

Past Chairman of Brain Injury Association, Inc., (formerly The National Head Injury Foundation) and past Treasurer of National Head Injury Foundation.

Active in helping rebuild the North Carolina Head Injury Foundation, during which time served as the Acting President.

Past Chairman, Co-Founder and Member of the Board of Governors of the International Brain Injury Association

Past member of the Board of Directors, John Jane Brain Injury Center, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA

Board of Directors, National Brain Injury Research, Treatment & Training Foundation

Board of Directors, Hinds= Feet Farm and Co-Founder

Appointed to serve as a member of the Traumatic Brain Injury Advisory Council of North Carolina, February 26, 2004 by Jim Long, Commissioner of Insurance.

Heads up two major fundraisers that aided the National Brain Injury Research Treatment and Training Foundation (NBIRTT) and now supports the Hinds' Feet Farm Program.

1. The Checkered Ball - This national fundraising event is held annually in conjunction with NASCAR and other celebrities at The Westin Hotel in Charlotte, NC
2. The Davey Allison Memorial Golf Classic - This celebrity golf tournament is held annually at North Stone Country Club in Huntersville, NC.